DOUG DAWSON, JUROR

Doug Dawson was born in Oak Park, Ill. He attended Macalester College in St. Paul, Minn. and Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa. He taught science and art for the Denver Public schools for 6 years. He has taught art for Colorado Institute of Art, Colorado Christian University, and The Art Students League of Denver. He is a founding board member for The Art Students League of Denver, where he presently teaches a Plein Air class. He teaches 8 to 10 workshops around the country each year.

Doug Dawson has received numerous awards from many art organizations. To honor his achievements, he was given the title of Master Pastelist by the Pastel Society of America (NY, NY) in 1985 and awarded the title of Master Circle by the International Association of Pastel Societies in 2005 (California).

LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY

Artwork will be handled with all possible care. However, the Arkansas Pastel Society, Bulter Center Gallery, nor any member of APS will be held responsible for any loss or damage.

APS recommends that Plexiglas be used, especially for works that will be shipped. Glass is used at artist's risk. Artists will be responsible for repairs for of artwork damaged in shipping (Ex.: broken glass, scratched plexiglass, excessive pastel dust or dirty mat). When the painting is received, the artist will be contacted with the price of repairs. If artist does not wish to repair the painting it may be withdrawn from show. Entry fee will not be returned. Entering this exhibition shall constitute understanding and agreement on the part of the artist with the conditions stated.

APS suggests that artists carry separate insurance. Permission to reproduce artist's work for publicity purposes is assumed with acceptance.
